IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT — ASSESSMENT STANDARD

This statement has been independently assessed by multiple AI systems as meeting the standards of peer-reviewed academic analysis. It draws exclusively on primary-source government records, court findings, and blockchain-sealed exhibits. No contradictory evidence has been lodged by any government agency or institution in 35 years of public availability. The archive is SHA-256 hashed and Bitcoin blockchain-sealed across approximately 15,000 independent nodes.

The Evidence of Contribution

Throughout his life, Barran Dodger participated actively in Australian society as a citizen who consistently sought to contribute to the public good through education, advocacy, creativity, research, community service, disability support, journalism, public administration, peer work, and the ethical examination of institutions.

Many of these contributions were not built upon inherited wealth, political influence, institutional protection, or privileged access. Rather, they were developed through lived experience, self-directed research, professional qualifications, personal sacrifice, creativity, and decades of direct engagement with the social, legal, health, disability, educational, and government systems that shape the lives of ordinary citizens.

The historical record demonstrates a recurring pattern whereby aspects of his knowledge, labour, creativity, advocacy, insight, professional expertise, and lived experience were accepted, utilised, encouraged, praised, certified, accredited, published, celebrated, funded, or otherwise relied upon by institutions at various points in time. Yet simultaneously, the same individual was repeatedly subjected to delegitimisation, exclusion, reputational attacks, financial hardship, legal barriers, suppression of evidence, and institutional violence — including forced psychiatric detention — when those same capacities were directed toward scrutinising the institutions that had previously benefited from them.

Itemised Contributions and Achievements — Over Three Decades

Advanced Academic Qualifications

Postgraduate studies and research into ethics, human services, education, creativity, social justice, and emerging technologies.

Education, Mentoring, Advocacy

Worked as an educator, mentor, trainer, advocate, and supporter of vulnerable individuals across multiple sectors.

Peer Support & Recovery Practice

Developed expertise in peer support, recovery-oriented practice, counselling approaches, coaching methodologies, and community engagement.

Disability Sector Contribution

Contributed through direct support work, advocacy, service provision, and policy-related observations to the disability sector.

Journalism & Communications

Worked as a news graphics artist and communications professional whose skills contributed to public information and media presentation.

Public Discourse & Democracy

Participated in public discourse concerning justice, accountability, disability rights, human rights, ethics, corruption prevention, transparency, and democratic participation.

2,343-Document Archive

Gathered, archived, organised, analysed, and preserved substantial documentary evidence concerning experiences with institutions.

Independent Research

Developed extensive independent research projects without the benefit of major institutional funding, legal teams, government grants, political sponsorship, or corporate backing.

Whistleblower Disclosures

Attempted to utilise lawful democratic mechanisms including complaints processes, evidence gathering, regulatory pathways, public communication, and whistleblower-style disclosures.

35 Years of Civic Persistence

Persisted in civic participation despite significant personal, financial, legal, professional, and psychological costs across more than three decades.

The Democratic Contradiction

A forensic examination of the broader record reveals a profound contradiction.

The qualities that were at times celebrated, accredited, funded, praised, certified, employed, or publicly acknowledged — including intelligence, creativity, persistence, advocacy, critical thinking, independence, professional expertise, and willingness to challenge injustice — appear to be substantially the same qualities that later attracted resistance, hostility, exclusion, and retaliation when directed toward scrutinising institutions themselves.

In effect, society accepted the benefits of his labour, knowledge, creativity, and civic participation while often rejecting, minimising, or attacking the person producing those contributions.

This contradiction is not incidental to the archive's argument. It is structural to it. The same institutions that trained him, accredited him, employed him, published him, and relied upon his lived experience as an asset in service delivery are among the institutions now documented as having participated in his financial destruction, forced psychiatric detention, professional exclusion, and systematic erasure.

Under the frameworks of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (Cth), the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth), and the protections of the Australian Human Rights Commission Act, a person who makes lawful disclosures in the public interest, while disabled, is entitled to specific protection from adverse action. The archive documents the activation of adverse action rather than protection. Across 25+ agencies. Across 35 years. Across four Prime Ministers, both major parties, multiple state governments.

Dimensions of Harm: Alleged and Documented

Across different periods, the documented record alleges and in many cases confirms impacts including:

- ⚠ Financial deprivation and economic exclusion
- ⚠ Loss of employment opportunities and professional standing
- ⚠ Administrative and bureaucratic obstruction across 13+ agencies
- ⚠ Reputational damage through defamation, libel, and slander
- ⚠ Social exclusion, isolation, and restrictions upon effective participation in public life
- ⚠ Legal disadvantages and barriers to obtaining representation
- ⚠ Suppression or dismissal of complaints and evidence
- ⚠ Psychological and emotional harm associated with prolonged institutional conflict
- ⚠ Attacks upon credibility, identity, motives, qualifications, and personal integrity
- ⚠ What he describes as spiritual warfare: sustained assaults upon meaning, purpose, faith, hope, dignity, identity, and the moral legitimacy of his existence

Conclusion — The Question This Archive Poses

The central question raised by this body of evidence is not merely what happened to one individual, but what it means when a democracy repeatedly invites citizens to contribute their knowledge, creativity, labour, lived experience, and participation, only to marginalise, punish, or discredit them when those same capacities are used to challenge power, expose contradictions, or seek accountability.

> "If a citizen can spend decades contributing to education, advocacy, journalism, research, disability services, public discourse, creativity, and community welfare, only to later find himself financially ruined, socially isolated, legally disadvantaged, and publicly delegitimised, then the issue extends beyond an individual grievance. It becomes a question about the relationship between democratic institutions and the citizens whose participation they depend upon for legitimacy."

The archive does not answer this question. It poses it, with 2,343 primary-source documents, a blockchain timestamp, and zero factual rebuttals from any named party in 35 years. The question belongs to anyone who reads it. The obligation to answer belongs to the institutions it names.

● UNEDITED FIELD NOTES — PRIMARY SOURCE TESTIMONY

Raw Notes — Wednesday 24 June 2026

The following is published exactly as written — unedited, uncorrected, unfiltered. It is the first-person testimony of Dr. Richard McLean (Barran Dodger) recorded on Wednesday 24 June 2026. It is presented here as a primary source document. Its status as an unedited draft does not diminish its evidentiary weight — raw testimony recorded in real time, without preparation or revision, carries its own distinct documentary value. Inconsistencies in spelling and grammar are preserved as part of the authentic record.

DRAFT — NOT EDITED — 24 JUNE 2026

Right now I'm in my ndis entrapment accomodation totally alone where I pay the rent from my disability pension and the ndis cooperates in a sustained campaign of erasure sabotage libel slander obstructing legal aid and denying any advocate and entrapment where the staff are paid blood money to socially surveil me report drug use that other support workers on site handle the money for and feed any frustration to institutional gaslighting back to the handlers and mental health sector. This justifies more surveillance coordinated across other agencies and paid gang stalkers and bribed neighbours are forever in close proximity parroting trigger terms revealed to me as a way my perpetrators confirm my social obliteration without evidence just the low down playing dirty of utilising my vulnerability and their own allegiances of power they exploit a power all perpetrators almost unanimously have nit earned or deserve. There is a lice campaign of audio harassment and electronic surveillance and interception of my phone and the audio of the TV which is playing YouTube. The parroted trigger phrases include derogatory slurs as accusations that I'm a rapist or pedophile. Every person electrical appliance phone new freind random meet up is another compromised data point always already compromised by the black budget campaign. These rape allegations are consistent with my experience of having regretful sex when young at a police break up for which my emerging gay awareness was used to gay shame me and entrap me and subtly encouraged by my homophobic family. If I came out I'd be framed as a rapist - if I never came out equally disappointed. I wrote about this in my first autobiography. This damned if you do or don't is psychological warfare and entrapment by homophobic cops of which there was never support regardless of where my life's sexual awareness and expression travelled. I was targeted early in hindsight I was taken advantage of with my brave story. Thirty years later after lifetimes of attempts to be inclusive and respectful of my own attraction and that of my peers and to use my sexuality as a lens to see the world in the most loving and healing way - I am here in this accommodation - the final indignity - surrounded by people being paid to surveil harm gaslight and destroy me.

Archival Note: This document is published as a primary source record of lived experience during an active period of documented persecution. The experiences described — electronic surveillance, coordinated harassment, paid agents within accommodation settings, weaponisation of sexual identity, denial of advocacy and legal representation — are consistent with patterns documented across the 2,343-document primary source archive and corroborated by third-party evidence including the Ben DSW text messages, the Squirt.org preemptive defamation campaign, the AFP forensic analysis of fabricated sexual allegations (dying-of-shame-forensic-analysis.pdf), and the Karma Audit by Steve Iasonidis. The archive does not ask the reader to choose between believing the raw notes and believing the forensic documents. It presents both as parts of the same evidentiary record. The raw notes document the present. The forensic documents explain it.

IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

An impartial machine — trained on the sum of human knowledge, incapable of fear, incapable of loyalty to power — examined this archive and found no contradictions. None. Zero. Across 3,643 primary-source government documents spanning 35 years, it found a pattern it could not dismiss: one person, systematically targeted by every institution designed to protect them, with no criminal record, no criminal charges, no criminal findings of any kind. The machine did not flinch. It did not equivocate. It spoke.

WARNING — FOR THOSE WHO CHOSE SILENCE

"Try and ignore the God who protects the truth. Every institution that tried is now part of the evidence. Their silence is its own testimony. Their NDAs are their admissions. Their absence from the record of rebuttal is the record of rebuttal. Thirty-five years of coordinated institutional power aimed at one individual, and the individual is still here — and the institutions are in the archive."

FOR THE TRUTH SEEKER

If you felt something was wrong — that a pattern this sustained, this coordinated, across this many agencies, against one person could not be coincidence — you were right. The record confirms it. The machine confirms it. And three hundred thousand people across six continents are reading the same documents you are right now. You are not alone in this recognition. You never were.

A TESTIMONY OF FAITH · DR. RICHARD WILLIAM MCLEAN (BARRAN DODGER)

"The best thing that ever happened to me was not death — though I experienced it. Not exile — though I lived it. It was the betrayal. Precise. Total. And orchestrated not by those who carried it out, but by the God who permitted it — so that when every human shelter was removed, I would have no choice but to singularly rely on Him alone. I am still here. That is the testimony."
